Tinker did not agree to perform for Mr. Ebbetts. He refused to consider any proposition. "I can do no business with you," he told the Brooklyn mogul. "I am now a full fledged Federal leaguer."

The Pederal meeting is being called for the purpose of getting the probable lineup of the respective clubs. The managers will get together and decide what other players they will go after. By gathering in advance, the club owners believe the managers will be able to dodge the issue of "too many managers going after the same men."

KAYSVILLE BEATEN BY SALT LAKE SECOND

pecial to The Tribune.

KAYSVILLE, Jan. 16.—The Salt Lake high school second baskethall team won a freakish game from the Kaysville Mutual quintette here tonight, by the score of 36 to 17. The game was played in the town gymnaslum, which was lighted with a few lanterns. The game was postponed for a time while the local players attempted to get more light. When a basket was made the spectators could hardly see the ball. The electric power remained off all night.

The Kaysville team was defeated last week by the Ogden high school first team by two points, and the local boys were confident that they would win from the little Salt Lake team. The Kaysville center, King, played a good game and shot several difficult baskets, but generally the Kaysville team was weak in basket shooting. The first half ended with the score 16 to 8 in favor of the winners.

The local hoys say that had there been electric lights they would have played a better and closer game, but Coach Hichardson's place as the high school coach, was confident that the Salt Lake boys would have scored over fifty points had there seen illumination.

SAYS RITCHIE IS AFRAID OF MURPHY

to Drop; Is Looking for Money.

By SAM P. HALL

CHICAGO, Jan. 16 .- "Gunboat" Smith now the recognized white heavyweight champion, got into Chicago today. He is billed for a week of stage work at the "Gunboat" expects Manager Jim Buckley here from San Francisco in about ley here from San Francisco in about three days, now that the Ritchie-Murphy fight is definitely off. He said:

"Ritchie ducked out of that Murphy match because he is afraid of Murphy at any sort of respectable weight. Willie is a welterweight and I am of the opinion that he called off the match because he can't get down to 125 pounds. It's a shame that he should be permitted to avoid the Harlemite in this way.

"What am I going to do? Oh, pick up some stage money for a while. Buckley is waiting some sort of word from Paris concerning Jack Johnson, but I hear the colored fellow has signed up with Frank Moran. He'll have to fight me sooner or later. Moran would be easy for the old 'Gunboat."

Gunboat. Moran would be easy for the old 'Gunboat.'
"Will I fight Tom McMahon in Milwaukee? Certainly, if I get enough money. The Milwaukee promoters can talk to Buckley when he gets here. I am at the top now and after the kale.'

Injustice to Mandot.

Joe Mandot evidently was done an injustice in one of the stories sent out of Detroit on his scrap with Johnny Griffiths last Wednesday night. Glancing over the Detroit papers we learn that of five expert opinions handed down. Mandot received two, two were a draw and the other went to Griffiths. Unfortunately, the story that favored the Onio boy was the one that hit most of the big boxing centers. Mandot and Manager Tom Walsh know this and are much perturbed thereat. The Detroit Nows says:

The Detroit News says:

At the conclusion of the eighth round the best that Mandot could claim was a shade and the worst he could receive was a draw. There was much difference between the Mandot who fought last night and the Mandot who beat Patsy Drouillard last December. Louisiana Joe has picked up the speed he jost after Leach Cross won a lucky victory over him last February. Also he had the same cleverness, and augressiveness. His experience gave him the advantage over Griffiths.

Draw About Right.

Draw About Right.

That certainly makes it look as though a draw verdict would be helping Griffiths some instead of Mandot. Tommy Walsh is of the opinion that in places where newspaper decisions are the rule the verdicts should be tossed into a hat, summed up and the winner picked in that way. It's not a bad idea.

Jack White and Matty McCue were matched today for a ten-round go before the Wagner club in Racine. February 19. The men will weigh 128 pounds at 3 o'clock.

Charley White and Jimmy Duffy were matched today to box ten rounds in Buffalo on the night of February 23.

Joe Rivers flashed his boxing stuff before a throng at a local gymnasium today, "Kid" Troubles was his opponent for a few rounds. The Mexican looked great. Word from Milwaukee is that Wolgast, between training spells, continues to bet that he will whale the westerner.

BUTTE, Jan. 16.—The Union Baseball association will be in existence this scason and there will be six clubs in the circuit and probably cight.

This was indicated tonight by the receipt by President B. F. Murphy of advices from the heads of the different clubs that either they or their representatives were en route to Butte with the forfeit money.

The meeting of the directors was scheduled for 10:30 o'clock tomorrow forenoon, but owing to a misunderstanding. President Dan Tracy of the Great Falls will not be able to reach Butte until tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, when it is planned immediately to convene the is planned immediately to convene the meeting.

Jack Flannery, one of the directors of the Helena club, arrived this evening, bearing the forfeit and orimming with enthusiasm for the future of the league.

W. L. Murphy, president of the Missoula club, will attend the meeting, but more as a matter of courtesy, as Missoula definitely has dropped from the league. Either Murray, Utah, or Boise will take Missoula's place in the circuit, and if it develops that both of these towns want representation in the Union league, it will then be necessary for the directors to add another town. More than likely the added town will be Pocatello, making eight clubs in the organization.

It is incumbent upon all those attending the meeting tomorrow to bring their forfeit and President Murraly is assigned. It is incumbent upon all those attending the meeting tomorrow to bring their forfeit, and President Murphy is assured that the money is ready for posting. The forfeit is $1000, of which $500 must be posted tomorrow and the remainder at the schedule meeting.

Four Butte men have subscribed $2000 for the team and fans are ready to subscribe $3000 more.

Commencing tomorrow's matinee, the new bill, according to the management, will be one of the best to date. It is one of those double-headline offerings, with Mary and Marie McFarland, "The American Nightingales," and Ceoil Lean and Cleo Mayfield, presenting "Acting Songs," as the joint topliners. The balance of the new bill is said to be up to the pace set by the leading offerings.

"The Man Who Stood Still" will be repeated tonight at the Utah theater and will mark the close of another successful week for the popular stock house. Williard Mack has created a fine impression this week by his careful and artistic delineation of the role of Herman Krauss, one of the most difficult character parts he has ever played. Those who imagined that he could not do character work have been most agreeably surprised. Next week Mr. Mack will have only a minor part in "Pierre of the Plains."

Another great big bill, filled with novel offerings from all over the world, is the present week's offering at the Empress theater. This is unquestionably the finest and most expensive array of vaude-ville acts that has ever been seen on a popular-price vaudeville stage west of the Mississippi. First among the many features is "The Bower of Melody." presented by Evand and Harris and comprising twelve of the most talented musicians that have ever accepted a vaudeville contract. This is one of the most pretentious offerings of the season, and one which will live long in the memory of everyone fortunate enough to witness it. witness it.

Pantages theater offers a genuine treat in the new bill this week. A comedy sketch presented by Six Hoboes, just over from Australia, is full of good singing and dancing. Lasky's Hoboes also give a burlesque on the "tango" as seen in society, which is a huge laugh; the Romero family appear in a sensational novelty dancing act; Arthur Vincent and Eleanor Baymond present a little comedy Eleanor Raymond present a little comedy skit entitled "Names Don't Count"; Kathryne Miley offers new songs and patter; the La Tell brothers, athletes, and the Two Hordes, Russian singers, dancers and musicians, complete the bill.

Abraham Lincoln's career from young manhood to death is well presented in "From Rall-Splitter to President," the two-part Gold Seal headliner at the Rex for this afternoon and evening only. The picture features Grace Cunard as Ann Rutledge and Francis Ford long famous Rutledge, and Francis Ford, long famous as an impersonator of the great presi-dent, as Lincoln. The piece is filled with strong situations and has great historical value. Three other pictures are also on the bill.

The power of childhood over old age is strikingly and interestingly exemplified in the charming domestic drama by the Selig company, entitled "Granddaddy's Boy," shown at the Mehesy today only. It is the good fortune of the little boy to intercede with his grandfather and bring happiness to the family. The Pathe players present a comedy scream, "Mr. Gaston from Paris." A thrilling Vitagraph drama, "Mid Kentucky Hills." with Edith Story and Harry Northrup in the leading roles, and a Pathe drama, "The Missionary's Triumph," complete today's programme.

"The merger of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company and the United States Steel corporation, in my opinion, would have been impossible had it not been for the fact that President Roosevelt advised the attorney general not to take action in the matter and no other official could. tion in cases of violation of the trust laws, Mr. Stanley declared that his amendment would make impossible any inaction under the act, because remedy would be open to all.

'The provision in section four of the present act requiring all actions to be brought by the attorney general,' he said, 'has done more to render the Sherman anti-trust act ineffective than almost any other thing. The Sherman act has at times been a dead letter because some attorney general happened.

In concluding, Mr. Flexner says our attitude toward the social evil, in so far as these factors are concerned, cannot embody itself in a special remedial or repressive policy, for in this sense it must be dealt with as part of the larger social problems with which it is inextricably entangled.

"Civilization has stripped for a lite and death wrestle with tuberculosis, alcohol and other plagues. It is on the verge of a similar struggle with the grosser forms of commercialized vice. Sooner or later it must fling down the gauntlet to the whole terrible thing. This will be the real contest—a contest that will tax the courage, the self-denial, the faith, the resources of humanity to their uttermost."
